Index

AUTHORS

A

Albert MR, 292–302
Aziz N, 268–291

B

Balducci L, 322–324
Bloch AS, 268–291
Brooks D, 44–55
Brown JK, 268–291
Burke W, 141–169
Byers T, 268–291

C

Cardinez CJ, 208–226
Chlebowski RT, 266–267 (Editorial)
Cohen GI, 73–81
Cokkinides V, 27–43, 208–226, 342–355
Costanza ME, 141–169
Courneya KS, 268–291

D

Demark-Wahnefried W, 268–291
DiFranza JR, 102–123
Doyle C, 268–291

E

Eldridge B, 268–291
Evans WP III, 141–169
Eyre HJ, 27–43, 141–169
Eysenbach G, 356–371

F

Ford LG, 82–101
Foster RS Jr, 141–169
Frunkin H, 245–255

G

Garber JE, 138–140 (Editorial)
Ghafoor A, 5–26, 342–355

H

Hamilton K, 268–291
Hendrick E, 141–169
Holmes CE, 227–244
Huerta EE, 205–207 (Editorial)
Hurria A, 325–341

J

Jemal A, 5–26, 208–226, 342–355

K

Kattlove H, 172–196
Katzin C, 268–291
Koonce A, 268–291
Kris MG, 325–341
Kushi LH, 268–291

L

Levin B, 44–55

M

Main J, 268–291
McCaskill-Stevens W, 82–101
McTiernan A, 268–291
Minasian LM, 82–101
Mobley C, 268–291
Morra ME, 268–291
Murray T, 5–26, 208–226
Muss HB, 227–244

O

O'Brien K, 208–226

P

Pierce MS, 268–291
Pisano ED, 82–101

R

Rock CL, 268–291

S

Samuels A, 5–26, 208–226
Sargent JD, 102–123
Saslow D, 141–169
Sawyer KA, 141–169, 268–291
Sener S, 141–169
Simmonds MA, 4 (Guest Editorial)
Smith RA, 27–43, 44–55, 82–101, 141–169, 342–355
Stone A, 44–55
Sullivan D, 82–101

T

Thun MJ, 5–26, 208–226, 342–355

W

Ward E, 5–26, 208–226, 342–355
Weinstock MA, 292–302
Winn RJ, 172–196

Y

Yates JW, 69–72 (Editorial)

SUBJECTS

A

Acute lymphoblastic leukemia
Outcome of childhood leukemia survivors, 318–319 (News & Views)
Acute myelogenous leukemia
Agent Orange, 249
Adenomatous polyps
Colorectal cancer risk and, ACS early detection guidelines, 32–34
Emerging technologies in colorectal cancer screening, 44–55
Agent Orange and cancer, 245–255
Continuing Medical Education Activity, 258
Erratum, 380
Alcohol intake
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 275–276
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 308 (Patient Pages)
American Cancer Society early detection guidelines, 27–43
Breast cancer screening, 28–31, 39, 40, 141–169
Breast cancer screening, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 195–196
Cancer-related check-up, 37
Cervical cancer screening, 31–32, 39, 40
Cervical neoplasia and cancer, 127 (Erratum)
Colorectal cancer screening and adenomatous polyps, 32–34, 39, 40, 54–55
Continuing Medical Education Activity, 57–58
Endometrial cancer screening, 34–35
Lung cancer screening, 36–37
Prevalence of recent cancer screening examinations among US adults, 38
Prostate cancer screening, 35–36, 39, 40, 261–262
Racial and ethnic patterns, 39–42
American Cancer Society guide for nutrition and physical activity for cancer survivors, 266–291. See also Nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors

B

Basal cell carcinoma
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 292–302
Biopsy
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 298
Bladder cancer
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 190–191
Body weight
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 273
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 304 (Patient Pages)
Bone marrow transplant recipients
Second primary tumors, 191
Brain cancer
Agent Orange exposure, 250
Breast cancer
ACS early detection guidelines, 28–31, 39, 40
ACS guidelines for breast cancer screening, 141–169
ACS guidelines for breast cancer screening, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 195–196
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 281–283, 287
Antiperspirant use does not increase risks, 2–3 (News & Views)
Breast cancer screening: final analysis?, 138–140 (Editorial)
Combined hormone replacement therapy, 262–264
Diagnosis and treatment in elderly, 227–244
Diagnosis and treatment in elderly, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 257–258
Digital Mammographic Imaging Screening Trial, 95–100
Early detection in women at increased risk, 158–162
Finding breast cancer early, 170–171 (Patient Pages)
Incidence and mortality among Hispanics, 210–211
Invasive lobular carcinoma incidence increasing, 137 (News & Views)
Metastatic, management in elderly, 239–242
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 173–178, 315 (Erratum)
Prevention clinical trials, 98
Primary prevention, 231–233
Screening in older women, 153–158
Stage at diagnosis among Hispanics, 216
Study of Tamoxifen and Raloxifene, 85–89
Trends by race and ethnicity, 342–355
Trends by race and ethnicity, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 377–378
Use of cancer screening tests by Hispanics, 217, 221
Breast clinical examination, 149–151, 161
Breast self-examination, 150, 152–153, 161

C

Cancer prevention
Anti-smoking efforts cut lung cancer deaths, 317–318 (News & Views)
Contributions of clinicians in community practice to clinical trials in cancer prevention, early detection, and treatment, 69–72 (Editorial)
High-fiber diet lowers colon cancer risk, 201–202 (News & Views)
HPV-16 vaccine effective in preventing persistent infection and CIN, 3
Institute of Medicine report, 264–265 (News & Views)
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 298–300

Index

AUTHORS

A

Albert MR, 292–302
Aziz N, 268–291

B

Balducci L, 322–324
Bloch AS, 268–291
Brooks D, 44–55
Brown JK, 268–291
Burke W, 141–169
Byers T, 268–291

C

Cardinez CJ, 208–226
Chlebowski RT, 266–267 (Editorial)
Cohen GI, 73–81
Cokkinides V, 27–43, 208–226, 342–355
Costanza ME, 141–169
Courneya KS, 268–291

D

Demark-Wahnefried W, 268–291
DiFranza JR, 102–123
Doyle C, 268–291

E

Eldridge B, 268–291
Evans WP III, 141–169
Eyre HJ, 27–43, 141–169
Eysenbach G, 356–371

F

Ford LG, 82–101
Foster RS Jr, 141–169
Frunkin H, 245–255

G

Garber JE, 138–140 (Editorial)
Ghafoor A, 5–26, 342–355

H

Hamilton K, 268–291
Hendrick E, 141–169
Holmes CE, 227–244
Huerta EE, 205–207 (Editorial)
Hurria A, 325–341

J

Jemal A, 5–26, 208–226, 342–355

K

Kattlove H, 172–196
Katzin C, 268–291
Koonce A, 268–291
Kris MG, 325–341
Kushi LH, 268–291

L

Levin B, 44–55

M

Main J, 268–291
McCaskill-Stevens W, 82–101
McTiernan A, 268–291
Minasian LM, 82–101
Mobley C, 268–291
Morra ME, 268–291
Murray T, 5–26, 208–226
Muss HB, 227–244

O

O'Brien K, 208–226

P

Pierce MS, 268–291
Pisano ED, 82–101

R

Rock CL, 268–291

S

Samuels A, 5–26, 208–226
Sargent JD, 102–123
Saslow D, 141–169
Sawyer KA, 141–169, 268–291
Sener S, 141–169
Simmonds MA, 4 (Guest Editorial)
Smith RA, 27–43, 44–55, 82–101, 141–169, 342–355
Stone A, 44–55
Sullivan D, 82–101

T

Thun MJ, 5–26, 208–226, 342–355

W

Ward E, 5–26, 208–226, 342–355
Weinstock MA, 292–302
Winn RJ, 172–196

Y

Yates JW, 69–72 (Editorial)

SUBJECTS

A

Acute lymphoblastic leukemia
Outcome of childhood leukemia survivors, 318–319 (News & Views)
Acute myelogenous leukemia
Agent Orange, 249
Adenomatous polyps
Colorectal cancer risk and, ACS early detection guidelines, 32–34
Emerging technologies in colorectal cancer screening, 44–55
Agent Orange and cancer, 245–255
Continuing Medical Education Activity, 258
Erratum, 380
Alcohol intake
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 275–276
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 308 (Patient Pages)
American Cancer Society early detection guidelines, 27–43
Breast cancer screening, 28–31, 39, 40, 141–169
Breast cancer screening, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 195–196
Cancer-related check-up, 37
Cervical cancer screening, 31–32, 39, 40
Cervical neoplasia and cancer, 127 (Erratum)
Colorectal cancer screening and adenomatous polyps, 32–34, 39, 40, 54–55
Continuing Medical Education Activity, 57–58
Endometrial cancer screening, 34–35
Lung cancer screening, 36–37
Prevalence of recent cancer screening examinations among US adults, 38
Prostate cancer screening, 35–36, 39, 40, 261–262
Racial and ethnic patterns, 39–42
American Cancer Society guide for nutrition and physical activity for cancer survivors, 266–291. See also Nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors

B

Basal cell carcinoma
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 292–302
Biopsy
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 298
Bladder cancer
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 190–191
Body weight
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 273
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 304 (Patient Pages)
Bone marrow transplant recipients
Second primary tumors, 191
Brain cancer
Agent Orange exposure, 250
Breast cancer
ACS early detection guidelines, 28–31, 39, 40
ACS guidelines for breast cancer screening, 141–169
ACS guidelines for breast cancer screening, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 195–196
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 281–283, 287
Antiperspirant use does not increase risks, 2–3 (News & Views)
Breast cancer screening: final analysis?, 138–140 (Editorial)
Combined hormone replacement therapy, 262–264
Diagnosis and treatment in elderly, 227–244
Diagnosis and treatment in elderly, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 257–258
Digital Mammographic Imaging Screening Trial, 95–100
Early detection in women at increased risk, 158–162
Finding breast cancer early, 170–171 (Patient Pages)
Incidence and mortality among Hispanics, 210–211
Invasive lobular carcinoma incidence increasing, 137 (News & Views)
Metastatic, management in elderly, 239–242
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 173–178, 315 (Erratum)
Prevention clinical trials, 98
Primary prevention, 231–233
Screening in older women, 153–158
Stage at diagnosis among Hispanics, 216
Study of Tamoxifen and Raloxifene, 85–89
Trends by race and ethnicity, 342–355
Trends by race and ethnicity, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 377–378
Use of cancer screening tests by Hispanics, 217, 221
Breast clinical examination, 149–151, 161
Breast self-examination, 150, 152–153, 161

C

Cancer prevention
Anti-smoking efforts cut lung cancer deaths, 317–318 (News & Views)
Contributions of clinicians in community practice to clinical trials in cancer prevention, early detection, and treatment, 69–72 (Editorial)
High-fiber diet lowers colon cancer risk, 201–202 (News & Views)
HPV-16 vaccine effective in preventing persistent infection and CIN, 3
Institute of Medicine report, 264–265 (News & Views)
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 298–300

Prevention and early detection trials, opportunities for primary care providers and their patients, 82–101
Primary prevention of breast cancer, 231–233

Cancer screening
ACS guidelines for breast cancer screening, 141–169
ACS guidelines for breast cancer screening, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 197–198
Breast cancer, 28–31, 39, 40
Breast cancer screening: final analysis?, 138–140 (Editorial)
Breast cancer screening in older women, 153–158
Cancer-related check-up, 37
Cervical cancer, 31–32, 39, 40
Colorectal cancer, 32–34, 39, 40
Colorectal cancer, emerging technologies, 44–55
Contributions of clinicians in community practice to clinical trials in cancer prevention, early detection, and treatment, 69–72 (Editorial)
Digital Mammographic Imaging Screening Trial, 95–100
Early detection of breast cancer in women at increased risk, 158–162
Endometrial cancer, 34–35
Finding breast cancer early, 170–171 (Patient Pages)
Lung cancer, 36–37
National Lung Screening Trial, 92–95
Prevalence of recent cancer screening examinations among US adults, 38
Prevention and early detection trials, opportunities for primary care providers and their patients, 82–101
Prostate cancer, 35–36, 39, 40
Racial and ethnic patterns, 39–42
Use of cancer screening tests by Hispanics, 217, 220–221, 223

Cancer statistics, 5–26. See also Hispanic cancer statistics
African Americans, 126–127 (Erratum)
Children, 23
Continuing Medical Education Activity, 56
Data sources, 5–6
Estimated deaths, 6
Estimated deaths, by cancer site and state, US, 10
Estimated deaths, by gender, 7, 9
Estimated new cases, by cancer site and state, US, 8
Estimated new cases, by gender, 6–9
Hispanics, 205–207 (Editorial), 208–226, 314 (Erratum)
Incidence, by age and gender, 12–13
Incidence, by cancer site and gender, 11
Incidence, by race and ethnicity, 16, 19, 20, 22
Incidence, trends in, 9–15
Lifetime probability of developing cancer, 19, 23
Limitations and future challenges, 24–26
Mortality rates, 6
Mortality rates, by age and gender, 12, 14–15
Mortality rates, by cancer site and gender, 11, 19
Mortality rates, by race and ethnicity, 22
Mortality rates, further decrease in, increase in persons living with cancer, 4 (Guest Editorial)
Mortality rates, leading cancer types by age and gender, 18
Mortality rates, leading causes by age and gender, 17
Mortality rates, recorded number of cancer deaths and other causes (US), 13–19
Survival, 5-year survival rates for children, 25
Survival, by race, 19, 23
Survival, by race and stage at diagnosis, 21
Survival, by race and year of diagnosis, 24
Trends in breast cancer by race and ethnicity, 342–355
Trends in breast cancer by race and ethnicity, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 377–378

Cancer survivors
ACS guide for nutrition and physical activity, 266–291 (See also Nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors)
Cancer statistics, 2003: Further decrease in mortality rate, increase in persons living with cancer, 4 (Guest Editorial)
Nutrition and physical activity during and after cancer treatment, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 310–311
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 172–196, 315 (Erratum)
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 198
Outcome of childhood leukemia survivors, 318–319 (News & Views)

Capsule video endoscopy
Emerging technologies in colorectal cancer screening, 44, 53–55

Carbohydrate intake
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 273–275
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 309 (Patient Pages)

Carboplatin
Small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 336–337, 339

Carcinogenesis
Agent Orange and cancer, 245–255, 380 (Erratum)
Nicotine may promote cancer development, 66–67 (News & Views)

Celecoxib chemoprevention clinical trials, 98, 99

Cervical cancer
ACS early detection guidelines, 31–32, 39, 40
ACS guideline for early detection of cervical neoplasia and cancer, 127 (Erratum)
HPV-16 vaccine effective in preventing persistent infection and CIN, 3
Incidence and mortality among Hispanics, 218–219
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 188–189
Stage at diagnosis among Hispanics, 216
Use of cancer screening tests by Hispanics, 217, 221, 223

Chemotherapy
Breast cancer treatment in elderly, 236–242
Non-small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 330–335
Small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 336–339

Children and adolescents
Cancer statistics, 23
Leading causes of death, 25
Outcome of childhood leukemia survivors, 318–319 (News & Views)
Tobacco control for clinicians who treat adolescents, 102–123
Tobacco control for clinicians who treat adolescents, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 129–130
Trends in 5-year cancer survival rates, 25

Cisplatin
Non-small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 334–335
Small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 338, 339

Clinical trials
Clinical research by community oncologists, 73–81
Clinical research by community oncologists, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 128
Combined hormone replacement therapy and breast cancer, 262–264
Contributions of clinicians in community practice to clinical trials in cancer prevention, early detection, and treatment, 69–72 (Editorial)
Cost of performing, 75–77
Digital Mammographic Imaging Screening Trial, 95–100
National Lung Screening Trial, 92–95
Participation of elderly patients, 242
Prevention and early detection trials, opportunities for primary care providers and their patients, 82–101
Results never reported for many large trials, 319–321 (News & Views)
Selenium and Vitamin E Cancer Prevention Trial, 89–91
Studies find high-fiber diet lowers colon cancer risk, 201–202 (News & Views)
Study of Tamoxifen and Raloxifene, 85–89
Talking points for patient candidates, 78–80

Colorectal cancer
ACS early detection guidelines, 32–34, 39, 40, 54, 55
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 283–284, 287
Agent Orange exposure, 250
Emerging technologies in screening, 44–55
High-fiber diet lowers colon cancer risk, 201–202 (News & Views)
Incidence and mortality among Hispanics, 211
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 178–181
Prevention clinical trials, 98
Stage at diagnosis among Hispanics, 216
Use of cancer screening tests by Hispanics, 217, 221, 223

Community-based physicians
Clinical research by community oncologists, 73–81
Clinical research by community oncologists, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 128
Contributions to clinical trials in cancer prevention, early detection, and treatment, 69–72 (Editorial)
Prevention and early detection trials, opportunities for primary care providers and their patients, 82–101

Continuing Medical Education Activity
ACS early detection guidelines, 57–58
ACS guidelines for breast cancer screening, 197–198
Cancer statistics, 56
Cancer statistics for Hispanics, 2003, 256–257
Clinical research by community oncologists, 128
Diagnosis and treatment of breast cancer in elderly, 257–258
Impact of the Internet on cancer outcomes, 378
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 311–312
Management of lung cancer in older adults, 376–377
Nutrition and physical activity during and after cancer treatment, 310–311
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment for their cancer, 198
Tobacco control for Clinicians who treat adolescents, 129–130
Trends in breast cancer by race and ethnicity, 377–378

CT colonography
Emerging technologies in colorectal cancer screening, 44–49

Cyclooxygenase-2 inhibitor chemoprevention clinical trials, 98, 99

Cyclophosphamide
Breast cancer in the elderly, 236–238
Small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 337, 338

D

Dietary factors
ACS guide for nutrition and physical activity for cancer survivors, 266–291 (See also Nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors)
Dietary supplements, 276–277
Flaxseed, 280
Garlic, 280–281
Gerson therapy, 279
Ginger, 281
Gonzalez regimen, 279
High-fiber diet lowers colon cancer risk, 201–202 (News & Views)
Livingston-Wheeler therapy, 280
Macrobiotic diet, 280
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 303–309 (Patient Pages)
Selenium and Vitamin E Cancer Prevention Trial, 89–91
Tea consumption, 281
Vegetarian diets, 274–275

Doxorubicin
Breast cancer in the elderly, 236–238
Small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 337, 338

E

Early detection
ACS guideline for early detection of cervical neoplasia and cancer, 127 (Erratum)
ACS guidelines for breast cancer screening, 141–169
Breast cancer, ACS guidelines, 28–31, 39, 40
Breast cancer screening: final analysis?, 138–140 (Editorial)
Cancer-related check-up, 37
Cervical cancer, ACS guidelines, 31–32, 39, 40
Colorectal cancer, emerging technologies, 44–55
Colorectal cancer and adenomatous polyps, ACS guidelines, 32–34, 39, 40
Contributions of clinicians in community practice to clinical trials in cancer prevention, early detection, and treatment, 69–72 (Editorial)
Digital Mammographic Imaging Screening Trial, 95–100
Early detection of breast cancer in women at increased risk, 158–162
Endometrial cancer, ACS guidelines, 34–35
Finding breast cancer early, 170–171 (Patient Pages)
Institute of Medicine report, 264–265 (News & Views)
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 298–300
Lung cancer, ACS guidelines, 36–37
Prevalence of recent cancer screening examinations among US adults, 38
Prevention and early detection trials, opportunities for primary care providers and their patients, 82–101
Prostate cancer, ACS guidelines, 35–36, 39, 40
Racial and ethnic patterns in screening, 39–42
Use of cancer screening tests by Hispanics, 217, 220–221, 223

Editorials
ACS guide for nutrition and physical activity for cancer survivors: A call to action for clinical investigators, 266–267
Breast cancer screening: Final analysis?, 138–140
Cancer statistics, 2003: Further decrease in mortality rate, increase in persons living with cancer, 4 (Guest Editorial)
Cancer statistics for Hispanics: Good news, bad news, and the need for a health system paradigm change, 205–207
Contributions of clinicians in community practice to clinical trials in cancer prevention, early detection, and treatment, 69–72

Elderly persons
Breast cancer screening in older women, 153–158
Diagnosis and treatment of breast cancer in elderly, 227–244
Diagnosis and treatment of breast cancer in elderly, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 257–258
Geriatric assessment, 325–328
Lung cancer in the elderly, 322–324
Lung cancer incidence and mortality rates, 326
Management of lung cancer in older adults, 325–341
Management of lung cancer in older adults, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 376–377

Endometrial cancer
ACS early detection guidelines, 34–35
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 188–189

Environmental carcinogens
Agent Orange and cancer, 245–255, 380 (Erratum)
Agent Orange and cancer, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 258

Epidemiology
Anti-smoking efforts cut lung cancer deaths, 317–318 (News & Views)
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 292

Errata
ACS guideline for early detection of cervical neoplasia and cancer, 127
Agent Orange and cancer, 380
Cancer statistics for African Americans, 126–127
Cancer statistics for Hispanics, 2003, 314
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 315
Tobacco control for clinicians who treat adolescents, 316

Esophageal cancer
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 286–287
Agent Orange exposure, 250
Celecoxib chemoprevention in patients with Barrett's esophagus, 99

Etoposide
Small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 336–339

F

Fat intake
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 273–275
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 308–309 (Patient Pages)

Fecal occult blood testing
Emerging technologies in colorectal cancer screening, 44, 49–53
Use of cancer screening tests by Hispanics, 223

Flaxseed
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 280

Fluorouracil
Breast cancer in the elderly, 236

Follow-up care
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 266–291 (See also Nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors)
Breast cancer treatment in elderly, 239
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 172–196, 315 (Erratum)
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 198

Food safety
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 276
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 307–308 (Patient Pages)

Fruits
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 275
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 306–307 (Patient Pages)

G

Gallbladder cancer
Incidence and mortality among Hispanics, 219

Garlic
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 280–281

Geftinib
Non–small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 335

Gemcitabine
Non–small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 332–334

Gerson therapy
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 279

Ginger
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 281

Gonzalez regimen
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 279

H

Head and neck cancer
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 286–287

Helicobacter pylori* infection, 215

Hepatitis B infection, 217–218

Hispanic cancer statistics, 208–226
Breast cancer, 210–211
Cancer sites with higher rates, 212–219
Cervical cancer, 218–219
Colorectal cancer, 211
Comparative cancer rates in Hispanics and non-Hispanic whites, 210, 211
Continuing Medical Education Activity, 256–257
Data limitations and future challenges, 223–224
Data sources, 208–209
Editorial, 205–207
Erratum, 314
Estimated cancer deaths, 209, 210
Estimated new cases, 209–210
Gallbladder cancer, 219
Liver cancer, 217–218
Lung cancer, 211
Mortality rates, by gender, 212, 214, 215
Obesity and physical activity, 220, 222
Prostate cancer, 212
Stage at diagnosis distribution, 216
Stomach cancer, 213–217
Tobacco use, 219–221
Trends in incidence and mortality, 209, 210–215
Use of cancer screening tests, 217, 220–221, 223

Hodgkin disease
Agent Orange exposure, 248
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 183–185

Hormonal therapy
Breast cancer treatment in elderly, 235–236, 239–240
Combined hormone replacement therapy and breast cancer, 262–264
Primary prevention of breast cancer, 231–233
Study of Tamoxifen and Raloxifene, 85–89, 233

Hospice
Medicare managed care patients more likely to use hospice, 202–203 (News & Views)

Human papillomavirus infection, 218
HPV-16 vaccine effective in preventing persistent infection and CIN, 3

I

Immunochemical fecal occult blood testing
Emerging technologies in colorectal cancer screening, 44, 49–53

Institute of Medicine report on cancer prevention and early detection, 264–265 (News & Views)

Internet
As communication tool, 360–362
E-commerce, 368
Impact of patient Internet use, 135–137 (News & Views)
Impact on cancer outcomes, 356–371
Provision and quality of cancer information, 359, 364–368
Research recommendations, 368–369
Use by persons and families living with cancer, 356–360
Virtual communities, 362–364

Irinotecan
Small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 338

K

Keratinocyte carcinoma, 292–302
Biopsy and pathology findings, 298
Clinical approach to skin cancer, 293–298
Continuing Medical Education Activity, 311–312
Descriptive epidemiology, 292
Prevention and early diagnosis, 298–300
Risk factors, 292–293
Treatment, 300

Kidney cancer
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 190–191

L

Leukemia
Agent Orange and acute myelogenous leukemia, 249
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 185–187
Outcome of childhood leukemia survivors, 318–319 (News & Views)

Liver cancer
Hepatitis B infection and, 217–218
Incidence and mortality among Hispanics, 217–218
Livingston-Wheeler therapy
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 280
Lung cancer
ACS early detection guidelines, 36–37
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 284, 287
Agent Orange exposure, 248–249, 380 (Erratum)
Anti-smoking efforts cut lung cancer deaths, 317–318 (News & Views)
Incidence and mortality among Hispanics, 211–212
Incidence and mortality rates in elderly persons, 326
Lung cancer in the elderly, 322–324
Management in older adults, 325–341
Management in older adults, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 376–377
National Lung Screening Trial, 92–95
Nicotine may promote cancer development, 66–67 (News & Views)
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 187–189
Prevention clinical trials, 99
Stage at diagnosis among Hispanics, 216

M

Macrobiotic diet
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 280
Mammography
ACS guidelines for breast cancer screening, 141–169
ACS guidelines for breast cancer screening, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 195–196
Breast cancer screening: final analysis?, 138–140 (Editorial)
Digital Mammographic Imaging Screening Trial, 95–100
Early detection of breast cancer in women at increased risk, 160–162
Finding breast cancer early, 170–171 (Patient Pages)
Screening in older women, 153–158
Use of cancer screening tests by Hispanics, 217, 221, 223
Managed care
Medicare managed care patients more likely to use hospice, 202–203 (News & Views)
Medicare
Medicare managed care patients more likely to use hospice, 202–203 (News & Views)
Metastases
Management of metastatic breast cancer in elderly, 239–242
Methotrexate
Breast cancer in the elderly, 236
Minerals
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 275, 276–277
Selenium and Vitamin E Cancer Prevention Trial, 89–91
Multiple myeloma
Agent Orange exposure, 249

N

New technologies
Breast cancer screening, 162–165
Colorectal cancer screening, 44–55
Non-Hodgkin lymphoma
Agent Orange exposure, 248
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 185–187
Nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 266–291
Across spectrum of cancer survivorship, 270–273
Alcohol intake, 275–276
Balancing fat, protein, and carbohydrate intake, 273–275
Body weight, 273
Breast cancer patients, 281–283, 287
Call to action for clinical investigators, 266–267 (Editorial)
Colorectal cancer patients, 283–284, 287
Continuing Medical Education Activity, 310–311
Dietary supplements, 276–277
Flaxseed, 280
Food safety, 276
Garlic, 280–281
Gerson therapy, 279
Ginger, 281
Gonzalez regimen, 279
Grading of evidence for benefit vs. harm, 287
Head and neck cancer patients, 286–287
Livingston-Wheeler therapy, 280
Lung cancer patients, 284, 287
Macrobiotic diet, 280
Nutrition and food choices, 273
Nutritional issues in complementary and alternative medicine, 279
Overview, 269–270
Physical activity issues, 277–279
Prostate cancer patients, 284–286, 287
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 303–309 (Patient Pages)
Special dietary regimens, 279–280
Tea, 281
Upper gastrointestinal cancer patients, 286–287
Vegetables and fruits, 275
Nutritional supplements
ACS guide for nutrition and physical and activity for cancer survivors, 276–277
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 305–307 (Patient Pages)

O

Obesity and overweight
Among Hispanics, 220
Excess weight linked to 90,000 US cancer deaths annually, 203–204 (News & Views)
Ovarian cancer
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 188–190

P

Paclitaxel
Non–small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 334
Pancreatic cancer
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 286–287
Agent Orange exposure, 250
Patient assessment
Geriatric patients, 325–328
Patient pages
Facts for parents who don't want their kids to smoke, 124–125
Finding breast cancer early, 170–171
Questions asked by cancer survivors about nutrition and physical activity, 303–309
Quitting smoking, 372–375
Physical activity. See also Nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors
ACS guide for nutrition and physical activity for cancer survivors, 277–278
Obesity and physical activity in Hispanics, 220, 222
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 305 (Patient Pages)
Prostate cancer
ACS early detection guidelines, 35–36, 39, 40
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 284–286, 287
Agent Orange exposure, 249
Familial, meta-analysis of risk and survey of screening behavior, 261–262 (News & Views)
Incidence and mortality among Hispanics, 210–211
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 181–182
Prevention clinical trials, 98
Selenium and Vitamin E Cancer Prevention Trial, 89–91
Stage at diagnosis among Hispanics, 216
Use of cancer screening tests by Hispanics, 217, 221
Protein intake
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 273–275

R

Racial and ethnic patterns. See also Hispanic cancer statistics
Cancer distribution by race and stage at diagnosis, 20
Cancer incidence, 16, 19
Cancer mortality rates, 22
Cancer statistics for Hispanics, 208–226
Cancer statistics for Hispanics: Good news, bad news, and the need for a health system paradigm change, 205–207 (Editorial)
Cancer survival, 19, 21, 23, 24
Trends in breast cancer by race and ethnicity, 342–355
Trends in breast cancer by race and ethnicity, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 377–378
Trends in cancer screening, 39–42
Radiation therapy
Breast cancer treatment in elderly, 234–235
Non–small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 330–332
Outcome of childhood leukemia survivors, 318–319 (News & Views)
Small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 339–340
Risk factors
Antiperspirant use does not increase risk of breast cancer, 2–3 (News & Views)
Behavioral and social risk factors in Hispanics, 219–220
Excess weight linked to 90,000 US cancer deaths annually, 203–204 (News & Views)
Facts for parents who don't want their kids to smoke, 124–125 (Patient Pages)
Familial prostate cancer, 261–262 (News & Views)
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 292–293
Nicotine may promote cancer development, 66–67 (News & Views)
Tobacco control as a lifetime process, 134–135 (News & Views)
Tobacco control for clinicians who treat adolescents, 102–123
Tobacco control for clinicians who treat adolescents, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 129–130

S

Skin cancer. See Keratinocyte carcinoma
Smoking. See Tobacco use
Soft tissue sarcoma
Agent Orange exposure, 247–248
Squamous cell carcinoma
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 292–302
Stomach cancer
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 286–287
Agent Orange exposure, 250
Helicobacter pylori infection and, 215
Incidence and mortality among Hispanics, 213–217
Surgical management
Breast cancer treatment in elderly, 233–234, 238–239
Keratinocyte carcinoma, 301
Non–small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 328–330

T

Tamoxifen
Adjuvant hormonal therapy for breast cancer in elderly, 235–237
Primary prevention of breast cancer, 231–233
Study of Tamoxifen and Raloxifene, 85–89, 233
Tea consumption
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 281
Testes cancer
Ongoing care of patients after primary treatment of cancer, 174, 182–183
Tobacco use
Anti-smoking efforts cut lung cancer deaths, 317–318 (News & Views)

Facts for parents who don't want their kids to smoke, 124–125 (Patient Pages)
Nicotine may promote cancer development, 66–67 (News & Views)
Quitting smoking, 372–375 (Patient Pages)
Status of state spending on tobacco control, 67–68 (News & Views)
Tobacco control as a lifetime process, 134–135 (News & Views)
Tobacco control for clinicians who treat adolescents, 102–123, 316 (Erratum)
Tobacco control for clinicians who treat adolescents, Continuing Medical Education Activity, 129–130
Tobacco use by Hispanics, 219–221

V

Vaccines
HPV-16 vaccine effective in preventing persistent infection and CIN, 3
Vegetables
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 275
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 306–307, 309 (Patient Pages)
Vegetarian diets
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 274–275
Questions asked by cancer survivors, 309 (Patient Pages)
Vincristine
Small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 337, 338
Vinorelbine
Non-small cell lung cancer in elderly persons, 332–334
Virtual colonoscopy
Emerging technologies in colorectal cancer screening, 44–49
Vitamins
ACS nutrition and physical activity guidelines for cancer survivors, 275, 276–277
Selenium and Vitamin E Cancer Prevention Trial, 89–91

W

Women's Health Initiative
Combined hormone replacement therapy and breast cancer, 262–264

Acknowledgment 2003

The editors of CA depend upon the wisdom and advice of many experts in deciding which topics to pursue, which manuscripts to publish, and what modifications to make to ensure medical and scientific accuracy and suitability for our readers. We thank our Associate Editors, who have performed these services for us in this past year.

We are also greatly indebted to the following individuals for reviewing at least one and, in some cases, many manuscripts for the journal.

—Harmon J. Eyre, MD, Editor in Chief

—Ted Gansler, MD, MBA, Editor

Terri Ades, MS, APRN-BC, AOCN
Dileep G. Bal, MD, MS, MPH
Lodovico Balducci, MD
Angela Davies, MD
Angela Geiger, MBA
Thomas J. Glynn, PhD
Irene Hall, PhD, MPH
Herman Kattlove, MD, MPH
Eric Klein, MD
Betty Merriman, MS
Carl Washington, MD
Dee W. West, PhD
Jerome W. Yates, MD, MPH